

Unit 2 past essay questions- use this to plan your revision!

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that gender socialisation is the main reason why women commit less crime than men. ( 12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that the mass media are the most important influence shaping public opinion.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that there is still limited social mobility in Britain today.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that in Britain today a person's ethnicity is the main cause of inequality. ( 12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that the working class is more likely to commit crime than other social classes.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that the mass media are the most important agent of socialisation in society today.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that welfare dependency is the main cause of poverty in Britain today.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that social class is still the most important cause of inequality in Britain today.
[12 marks]

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that some minority ethnic groups are still stereotyped as criminal by the police and the legal system. (12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that relative deprivation is the most important factor in explaining levels of crime in society today. (12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that editors and journalists decide what appears in the news. (12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that the poor are largely responsible for their own situation. (12 marks)

Discuss how far sociologists would agree that, in Britain today, age is a more important cause of inequality than any other factor. (12 marks)